10. Criteria for judging the booths:
  - a. Creativity/Appearance of the Booth. The overall appearance as to its appropriateness, attractiveness, and “Friends of Jesus” motif will be considered by judges. Adult leaders may assist the Adventurers in arranging and preparing the booth. However, the judges will give more points when greater Adventurer family participation has been used in the preparation of the booth.
  - b. Adventurer Display in the Booth. This relates to the collections, hobbies, handicrafts, or other exhibits made by the Adventurers which highlight the Award chosen as theme of the booth. These collections are to be the works of the Adventurers in the club and should not be judged as individual exhibits, but rather as contributions to the number of points possible for the booth display.
  - c. Working Demonstrations. This refers to the actual demonstrations by the Adventurers at the booth at the specific time of judging. Demonstration may include, (but not limited to), some interesting facts about the Award or the Scenarios in the life and ministry of our Lord Jesus. Adventurer parents may assist but it should not be obvious in the demonstration.
